How Can a Special Meeting Get Any Better?

Please remember you will cast your vote on the Merger documents at this meeting. Your attendance is extremely important as this is a major milestone on our journey to Girl Scouts of Western New York. This meeting is planned for May 13th - 6:30PM at the Annabelle Piper Program Center 1020 John Street. Please plan to attend and send your RSVP in advance that we may determine if we have met quorum requirements.

Do not miss our special guests, Cindy Odom and Mary Worboys-Turner, who will be on hand to speak with you about their vision for Girl Scouts of Western New York followed by a Question and Answer time.

Please RSVP by Wednesday May 7th using this LINK or the link on the Delegates page of the GSGV website. Thank You!

Girl Scouts of Western New York

You may recall, in previous bulletins we started to introduce you to our new officers, directors and committee members. Please read on as we continue to present the new Board Development Committee members.

Kathleen Conklin

Kathleen is a business professional with experience in sales, consulting, project coordination and process improvement. Her current success has a strong Girl Scout foundation that started with Brownie continued to Senior and on to leader and Gold Award advisor. Kathleen also brings her talents to the community by supporting her church agency for refugees and to youth groups supporting educational and Junior Achievement programs. Creative endeavors include making memory quilts and scrapbooking.

Andrew Goodell

A former Board member and Secretary for the Girl Scouts of Southwestern New York, Andrew has co-chaired a successful capital campaign to renovate Camp Timbercrest. Andrew is an attorney that specializes in real estate, commercial, banking and civil litigation. While a member of the First Covenant Church board, President-elect of the Jamestown Rotary, Andrew finds the time to be a ski instructor at Cockaigne Ski Resort.

Sylvia Stenander

A member of the Jamestown Community College administrative staff, Sylvia has worked in several capacities. Her most recent assignment is the Assistant Dean for Workforce and Continuing Education. Her responsibilities include non-credit and upper division programs at the college campus and its extensions. Sylvia's professional and personal commitments have been recognized with receipt of the SUNY Chancellors Award for Excellence in Professional Service and listing in Who's Who in American Women and American Education.
